Lodge Notes and Fraternal Interests

Propose to Decorate French Soldiers' Graves—Relief Corps Hears Fine Report—Invitation to Eastern Star Officers—Fraternal Whists—L. C. B. A. to Meet at Member's Homes—Third K. of C. Degree at Westerly.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

There was a well attended meeting of Norwich grange, No. 172, in Pythian hall on Wednesday evening. Worthy Master Andrew B. Davies presiding. Among the business transacted was the decision to invite Ledyard grange to repeat before a Norwich grange meeting in June the entertainment that the Ledyard people produced not long ago.

When the worthy lecturer's hour was reached a roll call was conducted by that officer, Mrs. Fred G. Bliss, proving most entertaining as each one responded with a poem, story or word of advice to the grange. At the next meeting, which is to be an open one, on May 25th, Dr. George T. Howland will give an illustrated lecture upon Tuberculosis in the Human and Bovine.

Inspector C. E. Staples of Colchester has sent word that he would like soon to visit the grange, and a date will be set to receive him.

LADIES' CATHOLIC BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.

St. Rose branch met last Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Theresa B. Shahan, and discussed arrangements for the summer months, first deciding to have the installation of officers at the next meeting, which will be on June 13th, at 8 o'clock, at Mrs. R. M. Powers. For the present at least the ladies decided to give up meeting in a hall, and to hold their meetings at the homes of members. They are expected to combine entertainment features with the business each month and a number of the members are to be at the shore during the summer. It is probable that a number of the entertainments will be given at their summer homes.

EASTERN STAR.

Sachsen chapter, No. 57, held its regular meeting on Wednesday evening in the Buckingham Memorial, presided over by Worthy Matron Annie I. Rawson. After the usual business the meeting adjourned with an informal social half hour.

Invitations have been received this week for Worthy Matron Rawson, Worthy Patron C. C. Caulkins and Secretary Lottie E. Williams to attend a special occasion to be conducted at Hartford, Conn., on Wednesday evening, May 25th, when through the courtesy of St. John lodge, No. 4, A. F. and A. M., the Eastern Star chapter will have degree work in the blue room of the lodge in the Masonic temple at Hartford.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Past Grand Knight P. F. Murtagh, delegate, Past Grand Knight John P. Corcoran, alternate for Grand Knight John B. Tarrant and District Deputy P. J. Morley attended the state convention in New Britain this week, when reports were made, a good showing for the order in the past year.

Norwich Knights of Columbus have been invited to the meeting of Narragansett council in Westerly on Sunday afternoon, when the third degree is to be conferred by Dr. Scanlon, who is the district deputy. It is expected there will be a good sized delegation from here.

L'UNION ST. JEAN BAPTISTE D'AMERIQUE.

At the meeting of Lafayette council, No. 307, in Foresters' hall on Thursday evening a proposition was made by President P. St. Onge to bring the French people of the town to have a distinctive part in Memorial day. This was to decorate the graves of the twenty French soldiers of the Revolution who are buried in the old Norwich Town cemetery. President St. Onge told the meeting that he had had assurances from the French society in Hartford that they would unite in this if it were undertaken. The proposition was received with favor, but action on the matter was deferred till the next meeting.

MODERN WOODMEN.

Ionic camp, No. 7694, at its meeting in Pythian hall on Thursday evening had a visit from District Deputy Joseph R. Hughes of Hartford, State Council Connor and Council Collins, both of New London, and Council Joseph D. Pfeiffer of Norwich camp, and also worked two candidates, besides receiving one application. It is proposed to have a large open meeting in New London, at which National Lecturer Burns is to speak, and there are committees from both the local camps to arrange for delegations to go from here. The time for the open meeting is on Ionic's next meeting night, but it is hoped to have it changed to the night following, so as to accommodate the Ionic men.

SONS OF HERMANN.

Mrs. Johanne Opitz and Mrs. Lina Leopold of Immergruen lodge, No. 12, of this city, and Mrs. Caroline Hunger of Edelweiss lodge, No. 19, of New London, were the delegates on Wednesday to the thirteenth annual grand lodge meeting in Torrington. There were 150 delegates at the convention, which was entertained by Theresa lodge, No. 14.

The report of the grand secretary, Otto Berger, of Ansonia, stated that there were at present nineteen lodges in the state, with a membership of 1,005 and a capital of $19,512.53. Ninety members have been initiated during the year. Twenty-eight have allowed their membership to lapse and seven have died. The amount of sick benefits paid during the year was $3,154.50 and the amount of death benefits was $1,350. The total income for the year was $4,536.62 and the total disbursements were $2,322.19. The sum of $1,200 was paid to the reserve fund. The total capital is $36,311.54, and is divided as follows: Capital of sister lodges, $19,512.53; reserve fund, $15,078.47; cash on hand, $1,340.54.

Following the nomination of officers shortly before noon, the convention took a recess until 2 o'clock. Dinner was served in the hall to the visiting members by the ladies of Theresa lodge.

When the convention was called to order again at 2 o'clock the election of officers was immediately taken up. Otto Berger of Ansonia, who had been secretary of the organization since it was started twelve years ago, declined renomination.

The members presented Mr. Berger with a handsome gold watch and chain as a token of their appreciation of his services in the past twelve years.

It was voted to hold the next convention in South Manchester in May, 1911.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Past Grand Regent Walter E. Canfield and Grand Trustee George S. Powers were in New Haven this week attending the first stated meeting of the grand council for the present year. Twenty-eight were present, enjoying a banquet before the business meeting. The order now has a membership of 5,640 in this state, with a total of 24,440 in the nation. These dates of fixtures for the state were made: New Haven, Waterbury, Derby, West Haven, Milford, Branford and Guilford, at Odd Fellows' hall, New Haven, on June 1; Fairfield county, at Stamford, June 2; New London county, at New London, June 3; Hartford county, at Hartford, June 4; Meriden, at Meriden, June 21, and Litchfield county, at Torrington, June 23.

AMERICAN MECHANICS.

The 25th annual state convention of the O. U. A. M. was held in Hartford on Wednesday, with 111 delegates present, representing 50 councils in the state.

A class of 35 candidates received the state council degree. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: State councilor, George W. Gammon of Manchester; state vice councilor, Frank W. Johnson of New Britain; state chaplain, Rev. C. M. Read of East Lyme; state secretary, C. H. Adams of South Norwalk; state treasurer, H. H. Purdy of Danbury; state examiner, C. L. Clark of Waterbury; state inside protector, E. L. Thompson of Meriden; state outside protector, G. W. Kibbe of Somers; representative to national council, H. C. Stevens of Stamford.

DEGREE OF POCAHONTAS.

In Foresters' hall on Monday evening the Neosho club of Sebagoquash council, No. 11, conducted an enjoyable evening of whist, although it was a rainy night, which has been the fortune of all the Neosho whist evenings this season. The next whist, which is to be in two weeks, is to be the last and will have a special feature to make it more than ordinarily attractive.

Those to take prizes last Monday evening were the following: First, Mrs. J. Sullivan, 44, a pocketbook; L. S. Manchester, 47, sleeve links; seconds—Miss Annie Brennan, 42, set of beauty pins; Edward Daly, 46, a pack of gilt edged cards; consolation—Mrs. E. B. Worthington and Mr. McLean. Coffee and cake were served. A short business meeting at which Pocahontas Ada Lathrop presided was held before the whist. It is expected that candidates for initiation will be before the council before long.

PYTHIAN SISTERS.

Clover temple, No. 9, had a whist to follow its last meeting in Pythian hall and an enjoyable time was passed for two hours at the card tables. Those to take the pretty prizes were the following: First, Mrs. Clements, 43, candlestick and shade; William Hartle, 42, pack of cards in case; seconds, M. S. Clifford, 38, a jacket; E. H. Plummer, 41, a silk pocket handkerchief; consolation, Mrs. Angie Chapell, a vase, and H. M. Colt, a pocket comb. Another whist was announced for the 16th, and cake and cocoa were served.

ORDER OF PROTECTION.

Business of importance to the order was transacted on Tuesday in Boston at the annual meeting of the supreme lodge at which M. J. Foley of Thames lodge of this city was a supreme representative from Connecticut. The supreme warden was authorized to call one or two assessments during the year to strengthen the emergency fund. Measures providing for a reserve law fund in the supreme lodge and similar funds in subordinate lodges at the call of the supreme lodge were then voted down. The restriction of "males" was removed, so that they can be admitted at the age of 16, the same as females to social membership. The membership was shown as follows: Not gain in the year 7,036; suspensions, 3,938; membership April 1, 66,676, of whom 34,911 are men and 31,765 women. Not gain in the states were reported as follows: Maine 384, New Hampshire 679, Vermont 221, Massachusetts 4,401, Rhode Island 242, Connecticut 1,869. Supreme Warden Frank A. Rice of Cambridge was re-elected and Robert H. Small of New London was among the supreme trustees elected.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

At its regular meeting on Friday afternoon at the Buckingham Memorial, Sedgwick corps, No. 16, elected one new member and had a report from the department meeting recently in Hartford. A written report was given by Mrs. Lillian Brewster and the other delegates reported alike. The corps voted to give the dinner for the regimental reunion on the 17th at the Buckingham Memorial.

FRATERNAL BENEFIT LEAGUE.

Norwich council, No. 25, held its regular meeting Friday evening in Pythian hall with a good proportion of its members in attendance. President E. H. Pincus conducted the business meeting during which it was voted to change the meeting night, the change to take effect at once. The council will now meet in Pythian hall on the second and fourth Monday evenings, which brings the next meeting on May 23.

Whist followed the business meeting and the evening concluded with a banquet which was served in the banquet room adjoining the hall and made a merry evening for all present.
